necial to the Gazette. WASHINGTON, Sept. S .- Chief Engineer Washington, Sept. S.—Chief Engineer Melville of the navy, who was the first to reach Gen. Greeley in the Arctic regions, said to-day in talking of the proposed relief expedition for Lieut. Robert E. Peary and party, supposed to be lost in the Arctic seas: "It is the mercet bosh. Thave no doubt that Peary and his associates are simply seeking some notoricity. Toelleve they are hoating around among the Esquimany and living around among the Esquimaux and living well enough. They are in a region where they can get food and attention to make them comfortable. The woman with the party is a hardy sensible woman. I saw har before the expedition sailed. Foraker After Sherman.

Washington, Sept. 8.—Ex-Governor For-ker has written a letter to one of his Ohio riends, in which he said he was averse com the beginning of the present campaign that he fought it off as long as possible, but that finally it was forced upon him by Sen-ator Sherman, or the latter's friends, and that now it was upon him he intended to take held of it vigorously but manfully, and he asked his friends to stand by him. The letter, it is stated, is being shown to friends of the ex-governor, and appears to be baying a good effect.
